DOOK 36 PAGE 111

MARY K. LONG, EXECUTRIX UNDER THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ORESTES F. LEATHERMAN THURMONT, MARYLAND

COMPLAINANT

NO. 25, 3/4 EQUITY

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

FOR FREDERICK COUNTY

MARYLAND

FRANCES C. LEATHERMAN, also known as Brooklyn B. Taylor 110 Catherine Drive Hurricane, West Virginia

RESPONDENT

BILL OF COMPLAINT

Mary K. Long, Executrix under the Last Will and Testament of Orestes F. Leatherman, complainant, by Peyton Paul Phillips, her attorney, says:

- 1. That Orestes F. Leatherman died on June 23, 1967, leaving anestate consisting of, among other things, two tracts of real property, namely all that tract of land generally referred to as the "Springfield" farm, having an appraised value of $78,000.00 and all that tract of land generally referred to as the "Levi-Leatherman" farm, having an appraised value of $61,000.00, all as will more fully appear on a copy of the inventory of real property filed in the estate proceedings titled Estate of Orestes F. Leatherman, No. 8984, In the Orphans' Court for Frederick County, Maryland, attached hereto and designated as Exhibit A. That the First Administration Account filed in said Orphans' Court proceedings values the testator's personal assets at $10,011.05, all as will more fully appear on a copy of said account attached hereto and designated Exhibit B.
- 2. That by said testator's last will and testament, dated August 12, 1964 and duly probated in the aforesaid Orphan's Court proceedings, the so-called "Springfield" farm was devised unto John D. Leatherman, the only son of Orestes F. Leatherman, and the

ROSENSTOCK, BURGEE, BOWER & PHILLIPS, P.A., FREDERICK, MARYLAND

Considerate the property of th